QUESTION OF THE MONTH

What is your favorite memory of collecting comics from when you were a child?

Jeff Albrecht (X-MEN ADVENTURES inker): "My favorite memory of collecting comics when I was a kid was finding a back issue of the FANTASTIC FOUR in some obscure comic book store that was about as well-organized as your family junk drawer!"

Ralph Cabrera (MORBIUS inker): "One that I remember is meeting Jim Shooter at a convention back in 1978. I also got to meet Mike Zeck. John Byrne was there, as well, and it was the first time he ever talked to me. I'll never forget his words. He said, "Hey, kid — get out of my light!"

Rob Tokar (NEW WARRIORS editor): "I ordered a comic from Cookie Crisp cereal. It turned out to be a really hot collector's issue. It was an issue I missed on the stands — the one where Spider-Man changed his costume!"

Mark McKenna (PUNISHER inker): "My favorite childhood memories are of Mary Jane Watson! She would just make my hormones go into overdrive! It's weird having a fixation on a cartoon character, but the way John Romita drew her was spectacular!"

Reggie Jones (penciler of "Vengeance" in MARVEL COMICS PRESENTS): "My favorite childhood memory of collecting comics is from 1976. Stan Lee did a signing at a book shop in London. I was 14, and I was there in my school uniform. I stood in the rain for three hours with my mates. The signing was supposed to end at 7:00, but there were still hundreds of people in line. Stan stayed until the last person got an autograph. I still remember the comic he signed for me — it was CAPTAIN BRITAIN #1!"

Nick Napolitano (MORBIUS penciler): "At the age of 15, I met Alex Saviuk, who was (and still is) drawing WEB OF SPIDER-MAN. I went crazy with my allowance and bought three pages of original art from him. One of them was a big Hobgoblin splash page! He was really nice to me. He was the first person that really made working in comics a reality to me."

Lynaire Brust (assistant editor): "My grandfather and all my uncles worked at a paper mill. They used to bring home comics for me and my sisters to read. (My sister Debra just joined the Marvel staff!) But we always had to give them back, because the paper had been sold! My favorite was the Hulk, since he was on TV at the time!"

Craig Anderson (SILVER SURFER editor): "Probably the thing I remember most is those terrific monster stories by Jack Kirby and Steve Ditko from the fifties. I was pre-super-hero! And then I discovered girls!"

Kelly Corvese (editor): "I used to collect Teen Titans. I could only afford one comic, since I had a $1.50 a week allowance. I would walk for 2 and 1/2 miles on the backroads of Hershey, Pennsylvania to a comic shop. I'd walk two hours just to read one comic book! I did this for five years!"

Fred Harper (DR. STRANGE inker): "I remember copying pictures out of the comics — the action shots! Conan was my favorite!"

HYPE BOX

Get ready for the greatest G.I. JOE extravaganza of them all! This week marks the debut of G.I. JOE #150, a 48-page action-fest in which Snake-Eyes goes one-on-one with Cobra Commander! Writer Larry Hama put it best when he said, "Snake-Eyes dances the ninja fandango on Cobra Commander's ugly masked mug!" This art for this issue is by Phil Gosier and Chip Wallace, with awesome pin-ups by surprise superstars!

Mark's Remarks

Once a year all of Marvel's editors steal away from the office for a few days to attend an editorial retreat. Our purpose — to hang loose, bond with each other, play wallyball, and — oh, yes — discuss things we often don't have time to delve into in our work-chocked days on the job. You know, things like our publishing philosophy and how to improve the entire line.

I thought I'd share with you my notes on one of the topics we discussed. Aspiring comic writers, take special note.

"What Every Good Marvel Story Should Have"

1. Interesting characters
2. Events propelled by the characters' specific actions and reactions
3. Multi-level conflicts (physical/emotional/mental/spiritual/symbolic, etc.)
4. Character revealed by decisive actions and tough decisions
5. Character development/growth/progression
6. Visual, action-oriented stories
7. Sense of wonder
8. Resolutions with the sense of hope
9. Insight into some aspect of the human condition
10. Some unique element — something never before seen

There it is. A blueprint for doing stories the way Marvel likes them. Am I worried that now everyone knows the secret and can capture the Marvel magic at will? Nah, we came up with yet another top ten list, "What Really Good Marvel Stories Should Have," and it's totally different from the above!

— Mark Gruenwald
